From the Director

Dear Friends,

I am grateful to present this supplement to the National Religious Retirement Office (NRRO) 2023 Annual Report.

Thanks to the generosity of concerned Catholics nationwide, the Retirement Fund for Religious collection raised nearly $29.3 million in 2023. Since its inception, the collection has raised over $1 billion.

This year's supplement report includes a comprehensive state-by-state list of the 286 religious communities that have received funding because of the annual Retirement Fund for Religious collection.

For detailed highlights from 2023 and information on contributions, we invite you to download a copy of our annual report from our website at retiredreligious.org.

Since the collection was launched in 1988, donations have been pivotal in addressing the retirement savings deficits of religious communities. However, the struggle remains for many who continue to face rising retirement costs. In response, the NRRO's Management Committee has allocated $28 million this year in Direct Care Assistance, ensuring that these senior religious receive the care they need.

Your contributions go beyond financial aid. They provide educational resources and support services that help religious communities address their retirement-funding shortages, enhance their care, and manage their long-term retirement needs.

As we continue our mission, we are deeply grateful for every prayer, every donation, and every gesture of support. May God bless you and your loved ones abundantly for your continued support of our essential mission.

In Christ,

Fund Distributions

Direct Care Assistance

The 2023 collection for the Retirement Fund for Religious enabled the National Religious Retirement Office (NRRO) to distribute Direct Care Assistance to 286 religious institutes. These funds support the immediate care of elderly religious and help religious institutes bolster retirement savings. Direct Care Assistance is an annual, per capita distribution based on specified criteria, including the level of need. Funds are sent to each eligible institute's central house.

An additional 190 religious institutes submitted demographic and financial data to the NRRO. Some provided information but did not request financial assistance. Others applied but did not receive funding because they were adequately funded per the NRRO distribution calculation. Visit retiredreligious.org/about-us/annual-report to download the National Religious Retirement Office 2023 Congregation Contributions PDF, which lists these institutes.

Management and Continuing Education Assistance

Through the Management and Continuing Education program, religious institutes may apply for distributions of up to $5,000 per calendar year to underwrite financial training, purchase retirement-related educational resources, or acquire basic management tools.
